

ABSTRACT

Title: A Case Study of a Student Living without Parent

Researcher: Angelica Mendoza
Cyrille Del Mundo
Allen Zyrell Cabral

Subject Teacher: Mary Ann B. Gatpandan

School: Gen. E. Aguinaldo National High School –Bailen

School Year: 2017-2018

Living without parents is not easy because parents serve as your lean on every task you make. Parents significantly impact a child's communication skills. Children living without loving parents often experience more difficulty expressing their needs and emotions.

This study will have an intrinsic interest on the experiences of participants, so in depth exploration will be undertaken about student living without parents. We want to deeply comprehend and examine the experiences of a student who is living without parents.

The main sources of data were from the interviews participated in grade 11 student from the Nazareth School of Gen. E. Aguinaldo. Lichtman's 3Cs of qualitative data analysis was done to analyze and interpret the results of the study.

The three themes emerged are Taking the Road Alone, Following the Signages, Trials while Taking the Road Alone.