Working during high school has many benefits. Many students feel that taking as a part-time job will distract from their studies at school.

Time management is a skill that everyone needs to learn. Many students today know the struggle of work and school. A working student has many responsibilities students who begin working in high school learn useful skills. They learn how to manage time and money.

Money, we all need it and our parents want us to always have it for ourselves to fall back on in the futures.

The main sources of data were from the interviews and focus group discussion participated in by selected grade 11 students of Gen. E. Aguinaldo National High School and Nazareth School of Gen. E. Aguinaldo. Lichtman's 3Cs of qualitative data analysis was done to analyze and interpret the results of the study.
